

Because I work, sleep, and eat in one small apartment, there's actually not any time of the day--or night--when I like to receive phone calls. Please leave the Indiana phone privacy protections in place. Thank you!